March Gladness

The month of college basketball games didn't find us tackling any hoops or nets, as we had an easy transition welcoming Rev. Luis Rodriguez to our parish! Inside of a few weeks, he's made quite the impact with his thoughtful sermons and upcoming projects. If you have not met him yet and would like to, please email hncparish@gmail.com to arrange a time.

With aloha,
The Church Office

The Institute for Human Services has a mission to nurture homeless people toward greater self-direction and responsibility. The core value of IHS is Ho'okipa- the hospitality of complete giving.

Every first Friday of the month, volunteers meet in the kitchen next to the gym to cook food for the homeless. Please join them on April 7 as they continue the tradition of giving.

Join us for:

Community Service Day

& give back to our community on

FRIDAY, MARCH 24th

with Malama Maunaloa

When: Friday, March 24th 9:00am – Noon
Where: Kuliouou Beach Park
What: Huki and Beach Cleanup – picnic after!
Who: HNS Families & Malama Maunaloa
tell your friends – everyone is welcome!

Reminders:

- Sunscreen
- HNS T-Shirts / School Colors
- Clothes that can get wet
- Completed Waivers - online
- Snack(s)
- FULL Water Bottles
- Waterproof cameras / phone covers
- RSVP at goo.gl/bJp61D

Each year, the Holy Nativity School Ohana comes together to lend a hand and help make a difference and give back. Sometimes we do this on campus and other times we lend a hand out in our community. For this event, we are working with Malama Maunaloa to huki, or pull, invasive seaweed from Kuliouou Beach as well as cleanup the beach. This event is great for all ages as it's flexible depending on ability. We'll be picnicking afterwards and everyone is welcome to hang out.

For any questions, please contact Jeannette Macaluso at:
808-372-1342 or PTO@HolyNativitySchool.org

Join us for some fun in the sun during spring break!

Looking for more ways to help the community? Meet us at 9 am this Friday at Kuliouou Beach Park for the HNS beach clean-up. After volunteering, we'll have a fun picnic! (Flyer above)
